

A crown of glory—is a beautiful head of hair. An Australian lady now in London writes under date Jan. 28, 1907:

"Ayer's Hair Vigor has done my hair a world of good. Thanks to it, my hair is now thick, glossy, and soft, and when plaited in 55 inches long, Ayer's Hair Vigor ought to be used by every woman who takes pride in her appearance."

You also may have such a crown of glory if you will follow the example of this lady and use

Ayer's Hair Vigor

It will remove all dandruff and make your hair rich and abundant.

DEATH OF WILLIAM OLMSTED ATWATER

Death came at ten o'clock last night to William Olmsted Atwater at his home in Honolulu, at the age of fifty-nine years. In his death this city loses a useful citizen and a prominent and much respected man. The remains will be given a Masonic funeral this afternoon—about the Masonic Temple at three o'clock, at which the Knights Templar will form an escort for the body to the crematory at the Nuuanu cemetery.

The deceased was a kamaaina, having arrived in the islands in 1872, locating first in Maui, at Lahaina. In 1876 he assumed his first position, becoming clerk of the Circuit Court for the Second Circuit, resigning in 1884 to become secretary of the Board of Immigration, which position he held until March, 1887. He then entered the employ of the American-Hawaiian Steamship Company, consisting of eight vessels, the Alaskan, Arizonan, Texan, Columbian, Mexican, Nevada, and Nebraska. He was the placing of two of the large boats, probably the Alaskan and the Arizonan, on a triangular run between Honolulu, San Francisco and Seattle. Four of the big boats will take another triangle between Honolulu, Salina Cruz and San Francisco, while the two smaller boats, the Nevada and Nebraska, will ply between Salina Cruz, San Diego, San Francisco and Seattle, keeping on the coast, back and forth. This will not interfere with the two-weekly service between San Francisco and Honolulu. Needless to add, the Despatch will continue to hustle in these waters between Honolulu and the sugar ports of Kauai.

In the absence of President Clinton J. Hutchins of the Wireless Telegraph Company of this city, Manager Balch acknowledges receipt of a communication from Rear Admiral Sperry, U. S. N., which, in part, reads as follows, bearing out the story foreshadowed in yesterday's Advertiser: "Referring to yours addressed to the Secretary of the Navy, in regard to the use of the commercial wireless telegraph system while the vessels of the Atlantic Fleet are in the vicinity of Hawaii, the letter has been referred to Rear Admiral Sperry, as he will succeed to the command on May 15. 'The Atlantic Fleet will undoubtedly be divided between Honolulu and an anchorage under the Island of Maui for the purpose of coaling, and immediate communication may at times be imperative.

"The Wireless Telegraph Company is to recognize the urgency of any call sent out from the fleet during the daylight hours, to give it the right of way and to leave the hours between 6 p. m. and 7 a. m. for the use of the fleet. 'Between the hours of 7 a. m. and 8 p. m., except on Sundays, no vessel except the senior officer's ship, in either of the places between which the fleet is divided, is to send out any message or signal.

"As it is necessary for the Commander-in-Chief to communicate while approaching Honolulu, the above regulations should come into force as soon as the fleet comes within range of the naval wireless station at Honolulu. 'A copy of this letter has been sent to the Commandant of the Naval Station, Hawaii, with the request that he consult with the president of the Wireless Company.

"Between 7 a. m. and 6 p. m. no messages are to be sent out by the senior officers' ships unless they relate either to illness or death or to official business which can not be delayed without serious interference with the administration of the fleet. 'This would indicate that eight of the battleships of the Atlantic Fleet will be coaled from coilers in the lee of the Island of Maui, while the other eight are coaled alongside the wharves in the harbor of Honolulu. While the entire sixteen battleships, according to the conveniences at the Naval Station, could be coaled in this harbor inside of five days, it seems that it is the intention of the Navy Department to give the Atlantic Fleet still further practical experience in emergency coaling from coilers at sea, and what Honolulu is to lose in the matter of half the fleet will be Maui's gain in that respect.

Already there is talk of excursions from Honolulu to the other islands during the week that the fleet is in this port, and it is Honolulu to get only half the fleet, and Lahaina the other half, it is very likely that there will be inter-island boats with excursions to Maui to give tourists the opportunity to view the Maui half.

President Clinton J. Hutchins of the Wireless Telegraph Company some time ago wrote Secretary Metcalf of the Navy to arrange for the time of commercial messages by wireless while the fleet is in port. It is generally recognized that while a fleet equipped with wireless is in port there must be some understanding between the commercial wireless system and the operations of the boats of the navy. Hence the letter of inquiry from Hutchins of the local wireless to the Secretary of the Navy, the latter referring the matter to Rear Admiral Sperry, who took command on Friday and whose letter is received by Manager J. A. Balch of the local wireless in the absence of the Coast of President C. J. Hutchins.

KOREA AND CHINA IN AND OUT.

Two Pacific mail boats Friday arrived in the morning and sailed in the late afternoon, passing to opposite shores. Both the China, Captain Friele, and the Korea, Captain Dixon, were off the harbor before the mist was off the levels. The China, from China and Japan ports, with 300 tons of freight, a few local cabin passengers, and 100 Japanese steers, forty of whom were women, docked at the channel wharf at 7:30 and took aboard 550 tons of coal, sailing for San Francisco at 5 p. m. The Korea, from San Francisco, with a large local cabin list, 82 tons of freight and three days' mail, docked at the Hackfeld wharf at 9 o'clock and sailed for the Orient at 4 o'clock.

Shipman for vice chairman, John Emmelhut for secretary, Joseph Perez for assistant secretary, and Fred Weid for interpreter, and rules of order and an order of business. It was adopted on motion of G. W. Ashford. Senator McCarthy in taking the chair made an address in which he congratulated the party on its growth in this Territory and predicted victory here and on the mainland. Vice Chairman Shipman made a similar address.

The committee on resolutions was ready to report except that the Hawaiian version of the platform had not yet been typewritten, and while this was being done the convention listened to a number of speeches. L. L. McCandless was called to the floor, made a speech on the public land question, illustrating it with maps of the different islands taken from Governor Carter's report to the Department of the Interior, showing the area of government lands in the islands, and how it had been eliminated from Nihaun and Lanai. He urged that the principles of the Federal land laws should be applied here, and that the land should not be left to the executive to legislate concerning, and to affix conditions unauthorized by law.

R. H. Trent and Dr. Raymond were also called on for addresses.

Chairman W. A. Kinney of the committee on resolutions, reported the platform as follows:

THE PLATFORM.

The Democratic Party of Hawaii, in Territorial Convention assembled, renews its fealty to the National Democratic Party, the principles of which, we believe, are the surest safeguard of the rights of American citizenship, and the best hope for the working out of the problems which now confront the American people, and which in their solution will bring liberty and equality of right and of opportunity to every human being.

We declare our belief that the application of these principles in the administration of Hawaii will give here that full measure of self government enjoyed in the past and now in other Territories of the United States, will abolish the feudalism of our land system, and will give to labor its due and just rewards.

In this behalf we urge upon the Democratic Party in Congress such a revision of our land laws as will take from the Executive of the Territory power to alienate, through exchange, the public lands of this Territory, a power under which immense areas have been and are being alienated and given to large land holders, thus making it vital to the interests of this Territory and imperative that some prompt and decisive action be taken to preserve the remaining portions of the public lands of this Territory for settlement by bona fide homesteaders. We, therefore, instruct our delegates to the National Convention to endeavor to secure a plank in the Democratic National platform favoring the application of the principles of the land laws of the United States to the Territory of Hawaii.

We call on the Democratic Party in Congress to so revise the Organic Act that the full extent of local self government desired by the people of this Territory, may be accomplished without duplication of officials and governmental functions, and without burdening the people with Territorial departments and officials unnecessary and expensive.

In common with all citizens of the Territory, we approve the policy of thoroughly fortifying these islands as the strategic outpost of continental America, and are gratified with the action recently taken to carry out that policy, and we urge that none but American citizens shall be employed on Federal work in this Territory, whether such work shall be done by contract or otherwise.

We believe in the dignity of labor, and hold that this Territory can never rise to its full possibilities of prosperity or happiness for its people as long as a system of labor continues which not only discriminates against American citizens but associates servility with labor. The Democrats of this Territory have kept inviolate their principles of American citizenship, and have consistently held aloof from all public expression and demonstration tending to place this community in the attitude of a peculiar or alien people in the eyes of the nation. We have, therefore, refused to participate in the repeated requests of our Republican fellow citizens here for discriminating legislation at the hands of Congress in the interest of our so-called peculiar local needs and conditions. We deny that either our industries or our commerce need legislation exceptional or contrary to that enacted for the rest of the American people.

CHAMBERLAIN'S PAIN BALM.

You will hunt a good while before you find a liniment that is equal to Chamberlain's Pain Balm. In cases of rheumatism and neuralgia it relieves the intense pain and makes sleep and rest possible. Soreness of the muscles, swellings and lameness are quickly relieved by it, and for the treatment of cuts and bruises there is nothing better. For sale by Benson, Smith & Co., Ltd., agents for Hawaiian Islands.

We renew the declarations of the Democratic Party of the Territory made two years ago in regard to a suitable provision to be made by Congress for Queen Liliuokalani, and urge fellow citizens here for discriminating legislation at the hands of Congress in the interest of our so-called peculiar local needs and conditions. We deny that either our industries or our commerce need legislation exceptional or contrary to that enacted for the rest of the American people.

A motion to consider it section by section was voted down. C. W. Ashford sought to strike out the instruction for Bryan but did not succeed, the convention being clearly overwhelmingly in favor of instructions.

SELECTION OF DELEGATES.

On motion of E. M. Watson the delegates and alternates to the National Convention were apportioned among the representative districts as follows: To the first and second, Hawaii, one each; to the third, Maui, one each; to the fourth and fifth, Oahu, three delegates and three alternates; to the sixth, Kauai, one each. The convention then took a recess while the districts caucused. The result was the selection of the following: From Hawaii, O. T. Shipman, delegate, Sam Woods, alternate; Maui, James L. Coke, delegate, Dr. J. H. Raymond, alternate; Oahu, E. M. Watson, C. W. McGonagle and Frank R. Harvey, delegates; J. J. Egan, R. H. Trent, and J. J. Fern, alternates; Kauai, C. W. Hudson, delegate, Allan Herbert, alternate.

A letter from Palmer P. Woods resigning as National Committeeman and congratulating the party on its prospects was read. On motion of Ashford a vote of appreciation of Woods as National Committeeman and as a Democrat, was unanimously adopted. Gilbert J. Waller and T. B. Lyons of Maui were nominated for National Committeeman. The latter was put in nomination in a very telling speech by James L. Coke. A vote was taken resulting in the selection of Waller by the vote of 69 to 51.

The rules of the party as framed by the Territorial Central Committee were adopted.

There were a few more congratulatory speeches, and the convention adjourned.
